Dear Mr. Smathers:

This acknowledges receipt of your February 28, 2011 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request to U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP), seeking “the contents of the My Documents Folder (or any other located used as the primary location to store electronic documents) on Dorothy Pullo’s work station and laptop computers (and any other computer assigned to this person.”

An independent reviewer conducted a comprehensive search of Ms. Pullo’s computer for records that would be responsive to your request. Unfortunately, based on the information you provided, we were unable to locate or identify any responsive records.

You have a right to appeal the above withholding determination. Should you wish to do so, you must send your appeal and a copy of this letter, within 60 days of the date of this letter, to: FOIA Appeals, Policy and Litigation Branch, U.S. Customs and Border Protection, 799 Ninth Street NW, Mint Annex, Washington, DC 20229-1179, following the procedures outlined in the DHS regulations at 6 C.F.R. § 5.9. Your envelope and letter should be marked “FOIA Appeal.” Copies of the FOIA and DHS regulations are available at www.dhs.gov/foia.

The Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) also mediates disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies as a non-exclusive alternative to litigation. If you are requesting access to your own records (which is considered a Privacy Act request), you should know that OGIS does not have the authority to handle requests made under the Privacy Act of 1974. If you wish to contact OGIS, you may email them at ogis@nara.gov or call (877) 684-6448.

If you need to contact our office again about this matter, please refer to 2011F06896. The CBP FOIA Division can be reached at 202-325-0150.

Sincerely,
